

INVITATION

The Institute of International Studies of the Corvinus University of Budapest and the Institute of World Economics, Center for Economic and Regional Studies of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences and the delegation of the Sichuan University cordially invites you to their joint event:

The One Belt – One Road Initiative seen from China

Venue:

Corvinus University of Budapest,
Building 'C', 5th floor, Conference Room 510.

October 7, 2016

9:00-12:00

9:00-9:05 Opening Remarks

dr. Tamás MATURA, Corvinus University of Budapest; President, CEECAS

9:05-10:00 Session I.

Prof. Jian SHI, Director, Centre for European Studies

OBOR Development Strategy and Sichuan University

Dr. Péter MARTON, Corvinus University of Budapest

Afghanistan: On the way or in the way of the OBOR initiative?

Prof. Feng DUAN, Dean, College of Foreign Languages and Cultures

Language Service in One Belt and One Road Initiative

dr. Tamás MATURA, Corvinus University of Budapest; President, CEECAS

China's soft power potential along the Belt and Road

10:00-10:15 Coffee break

10:15-11:30 Session 2.

Prof. Xiang DENG, Vice dean, School of Economics

The Role of Regions in the OBOR - Illustrated by the case of Sichuan

Prof. Zhuyu LI, Executive Deputy Director, Centre for European Studies

Introduction of Chengdu-Europe Railway Connection

Mr. Zeren LANGJIA, PhD candidate

How to understanding OBOR in Chinese diplomacy from youth perspective

Dr. Ágnes SZUNOMÁR, Institute of World Economics, HAS

One Belt One Road: Connecting China with CEE?

Q&A