

Invitation

to the conference celebrating the Centenary of the birth of Professor József Bognár

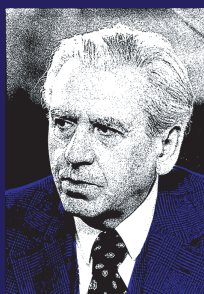

The Board of the József Bognár Economic Research Foundation is pleased to invite you to the memorial event celebrating the centenary of the birth of Professor József Bognár to be held on the topic of “Selected basic issues of economic security”

at 9 o'clock on April 06, 2017.

Place: Headquarters of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences,
“Small Room” (1051 Budapest, Széchenyi square 9.)

We would be delighted if you were able to accept our invitation and welcome you personally at this memorial event.

József Bognár
1917–1996

PROGRAMME

- 09.00 Registration, arrival of invited persons
- 09.30 Welcoming words by András Inotai, president of the board of the József Bognár Foundation on Economic Research
- 09.40 Scientific session moderated by Attila Boródi, member of the board of the Foundation
- 09.40 András Inotai, professor emeritus, president of the board:
Upgrading of economic security in the evolving global environment
- 10.00 Vladimir Rakhmanin, United Nations FAO deputy general director and representative of the Regional Office for Europe and Central Asia:
Economic security and the global food situation
- 10.30 András Szöllősi-Nagy, professor, National University of Public Services, and Chair, Intergovernmental Council, International Hydrological Programme of UNESCO: Economic security and freshwater reserves of the world
- 11.00 General discussion, comments, questions and answers
- 12.00 Péter Ákos Biacs, professor emeritus, member of the board of the Foundation:
Evaluation of and result of the 2016 Call for Papers action launched by the Foundation on „Man and biosphere: sustainability of agricultural production”
- 12.30 Mihály Dombi presents his paper
- 13.00 Concluding remarks by András Inotai, president of the Foundation
- Informal reception for participants*