

Contemporary Varieties of Capitalism: cutting-edge debates and recent tendencies in the East-Central and Eastern European region

Program of the International Conference

Conference venue: Institute of World Economics, KRTK, Hungary, Budapest, 1097. Tóth Kálmán u. 4., Budapest (in person) and Zoom (online)

Conference date: 24th of March, 2022, 9.00-14.00

Chair: Miklós Szanyi (Institute of World Economy)

9.00-9.05 Welcome: Magdolna Sass (Institute of World Economy)

9.05-11.20 1st session

9.05-9.45 Andrei Yakovlev (Higher School of Economics, Moscow, Russia) Evolution of State-Business Relations in Post-Soviet Russia

9.45-10.20 Éva Voszka (University of Szeged) Revival of industrial policies in the US and in the EU

10.20-10.55 Kálmán Kalotay (Institute of World Economy) Questions about the global minimum tax: a brave new world?

10.55-11.20 Coffee break

11.20-13.00 2nd session

11.20-11.55 Beáta Farkas (University of Szeged) Health crisis management in Central and Eastern Europe

11.55-12.30 Piotr Kozarzewski (CASE, Warsaw, Poland) State corporate control in post-communist economies

12.30-13.05 István Benczes and Judit Ricz (Institute of World Economy and Corvinus University of Budapest) Analogies of Historical State Capitalism Models and Current Hybrid Regimes: Insights from East Asia for Hungary

13.05-13.10 wrapping up of the conference (Miklós Szanyi, Institute of World Economy)

13.10-14.00 Lunch