

12th The Role of the State in Varieties of Capitalism (SVOC) International Conference 'New Perspectives on (New) Industrial policies in the Era of Geoeconomic Shifts' with the support of the National Research, Development and Innovation Office of Hungary under Grant FK-138317

Time		Monday, 1 June, 2026 Venue: HTK, Budapest, Tóth K. str. 4.
8:30-9:00	Registration & welcome coffee HTK, ground floor and Gallery (first floor)
9:00-9:15	Conference Opening Magdolna Sass (Institute of World Economics CERS ELTE)
	HTK, Budapest, Tóth K. str. 4., Conference room (ground floor)
9:15-10:45	Keynote lecture I. HTK, Budapest, Tóth K. str. 4., Conference room (ground floor) Insights from the New Economics of Industrial Policy Réka JUHÁSZ University of British Columbia Chair: John Szabó (IWE CERS ELTE)
10:45-11:15	Coffee Break
11:15-12:30	Roundtable discussion HTK, Budapest, Tóth K. str. 4., Conference room (ground floor) New Industrial Policy and the EV Industry: Pericentric Perspectives across Wider Europe Contributors: Réka JUHÁSZ (University of British Columbia); Petr PAVLÍNEK (University of Nebraska at Omaha); Anastas VANGELI (University of Ljubljana); Adam A. AMBROZIAK (SGH Warsaw School of Economics) Chair: Ágnes Szunomár (Institute of Global Studies CUB and Institute of World Economics CERS ELTE)
12:30-13:30	Lunch Break

Keynote lecture II.

HTK, Budapest, Tóth K. str. 4., Conference room (ground floor)

13:30-
15:00

Geopolitical Decoupling in the Russian Automotive Industry after 2022

Petr PAVLÍNEK

University of Nebraska at Omaha

Chair: Magdolna Sass (IWE CERS ELTE)

15:0-15:30

Coffee Break

	Conference room (ground floor)	K 11. (ground floor)	K 12. (ground floor)	Meeting room T4.23 (4th floor)
	Rethinking Europe's EV transition from a pericentric perspective 1.	Sanctions and Multilevel Adjustment	Industrial policy in the EU and beyond	Growth models, society and welfare
	Chair: Ágnes Szunomár	Chair: John Szabó	Chair: Miklós Szanyi	Chair: Emese Dobos
	Ana Vilencia and Vladimir Mentus Prospective Green Extractivism at Shifted Periphery: Displacement in Place as an Effect of Electric Vehicle Transition in Serbia	András György Deák Russian Sanctions and Global Payments	Adam A. Ambroziak The IPCEIs as a New Financial Mechanism of the Modern EU Industrial Policy	Gergő Medve-Bálint Social embeddedness of East Central European growth models: a research agenda
15:30-17:30 Parallel Sessions (SLOT 1)	David Gergely Karas Green Developmentalism in Connector Economies? Semi-Peripheral Industrial Policies, Green Transitions and Chinese FDI in European Battery Value Chains	Anna Sebestyén The European Union's Sanctioning Practice and Its Impediments in Sub-Saharan Africa: The Case of the Tigray War	Tamás Szemlér Industrial Policy Aspects of the EU Financial Perspective for 2028-2034	Jakub Tomášek Welfare States of the Populist Right Parties: Explaining the Divergent Pathways of Hungary and Poland
	Andreja Jaklič China's Role in Rewiring CEE Automotive Aftermarkets Amid the EV Transition	Zalán Klauda Sanctions, Tariff-Jumping and Internalization: Hungarian Firms in Russia after 2014	Balázs Páger Aligning Development Projects with Local Socioeconomic Needs: A Comprehensive Analysis of EU Project Implementation Patterns in Central and Eastern European Regions	Zsolt Kerekes Fiscal Structures and Growth Models: A Comparative Analysis from the EU's Eastern Periphery
	Anastas Vangeli Imaginarities of Industrial Legitimacy: Automotive Statecraft in the Semi-Periphery under Geoeconomic Shifts	Csaba Weiner, László Tőkés Who Stays, Who Exits, and Who Enters? Hungarian Exporters to Russia under Sanctions	Ewa Karwowski, Hannah Hasenberger, Nick Bernards, Annina Kaltenbrunner The Role of Peripheral International Financial Centres in Industrial Policy	Fatin Şevki Bulut Growth Models, Growth Strategies, and Dominant Social Blocs: A Comparative Analysis of Brazil and Poland in the Post-2000 Period

17:30 -
19:30

Reception

Venue: HTK, Budapest, Tóth K. str. 4., Gallery (first floor)

Tuesday 2 June
HTK, Budapest, Tóth K. str. 4.
Time	K 11. (ground floor)	K 12. (ground floor)	Meeting room T4.23 (4th floor)	Meeting room T4.24 (4th floor)
9:00-11:00 Parallel Sessions (SLOT2)	Rethinking Europe's EV transition from a pericentric perspective 2.	The pending role of states in industrial policy	The path of innovation in geoeconomic shifts	Firms' perspectives on industrial policy
	Chair: Anastas Vangeli	Chair: Andrea Éltető	Chair: Andrea Szalavetz	Chair: Magdolna Sass
	Ágnes Szunomár, Judit Ricz, András Tétényi, Norbert Szijártó	Marius Kalanta	Özgün Sarimehmet Duman	Miklós Szanyi
	Green dependence in the making: The case of Chinese EV battery production in Hungary	State Capacity for Transformative Industrial Policy in Central Eastern Europe	Research and Innovation as a Competitiveness Strategy in the European Market	Traditional firms in the platform economy
	Miranda Wu, Xing Li	Dóra Györffy	Ljubivoje Radonjić, Marija Radulovic	Smaranda Pantea; Nadzeya Laurentsyeva
	Dual Forces of Globalization: The Dynamics of Chinese Investment in the European Electric Vehicle Transition	Illiberal Industrial Policies: Promoting Electromobility and Defense in Hungary	Less Competition, More Innovation? Preliminary Insights from the Hungarian Economy	The Effects of Winning Public Tenders on Firm Growth: Evidence from the IT Sector in the Czech Republic
Martin Sebens	Adam A. Ambroziak; Andrea Éltető	Attila Havas	Katalin Antalóczy, Magdolna Sass
Second China Shock's Impact on Policymaking in the Eastern European Semi-Periphery	State Aid in Poland and Hungary as an Instrument of National Industrial Policies	Comparative analysis of the CE4 countries' innovation and economic performance	Emergence of SME Multinationals in the Present Geoeconomic Turmoil
	Zsuzsanna Zsibók, Ildikó Egyed	Tamás Csontos
	The UK's Modern Industrial Strategy – lessons from a post-Covid perspective	Diverging Growth Paths in Poland and Hungary: On the Causes of Poland's Growth Surplus
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break

	Challenges and backlashes of industrial policy	Spatial perspectives in industrial policy	Climate and industrial policy: Green perspectives	Challenges of Industry and institutions (PHD section)
11:30-13:30 Parallel Sessions (SLOT3)	Chair: Beáta Farkas	Chair: Ernő Molnár	Chair: Melinda Szabó	Chair: Gergely Buda
	Anita Pelle Regulation as industrial policy: Delivering on the European Union's green ambitions in an era of geoeconomic turmoil	Gábor Nagy, Gergely Tagai, David Bole Comparative typology of small towns in Hungary and Slovenia in the light of industrialisation	Michal Hrubý Green industrial policy vs. climate policy: a debate on local content and foreign production exposure	Vivien Aranyi-Aszalós Financial Guarantees as Development Policy: Industrial Transformation or Local Embedding in the EU Model?
	Fruzsina Sigér, Eszter Tóth, Zsuzsanna Trón Why nations bike? And why not? The institutional economics of cycling	Sidan Raeskyesa What Drives Special Economic Zone Establishment? The Role of Fiscal Decentralization	Johan Rootzén Navigating the Green Transition Under Uncertainty: Early-Mover Strategies and Industrial Policy Challenges in Sweden	Áron Csiki Regional resilience in the Visegrád countries during the COVID-19 crisis: Comparative assessment of recovery patterns
	Magdolna Sass, Kálmán Kalotay Investing in "Friends": Hungary's Trade, FDI and Industrial Policy Engagement in the Western Balkans	Erika Nagy Municipal agency in a changing multilevel polity. Diverse pathways in the eastern industrial periphery of Europe	Vladimir Mentus Public Support for Energy Policies and Perceptions of Climate Responsibility in Europe	Dóra Laura Rác Do formal institutions converge across countries? – Review of the empirical literature
	Judit Ricz, Andrea Éltető Rules for Sale: Autocratic Forbearance, as a New Industrial Policy Tool to Promote the Hungarian Battery Hub	Ernő Molnár Regional embedding of transnational companies in an emerging CEE automotive location: The case of Debrecen		Harakan Ahmad Nickel Downstream Industrialisation in the Era of Geoeconomic Shifts: New Industrial Policy, EV Value Chains, and Development Challenges in Indonesia
13:30-14:15	Lunch Break

	Industrial policy in the EU periphery	Industrial Policy in the Global South	New perspectives on industrial policy	Responses to current challenges of sustainability and states (PHD)
14:15-16:15 Parallel Sessions (SLOT4)	Chair: Judit Ricz	Chair: Erzsébet N. Rózsa	Chair: Gábor Túry	Chair: Magdolna Sass
	Dóra Piroska, Ana Podvrsic The EU's Investment State on the EU's Eastern Periphery: the case of Slovenia	Petra Dünhaupt, Valeria Jiménez Structural Policy Space and Global Value Chain Position - A Framework for Industrial Policy in the Critical-Minerals Boom	Attila Havas, Totti Könnölä, and K. Matthias Weber Multi-Level, Multi-Domain Foresight: Navigating the Security-Sustainability-Innovation Nexus	Melinda Szabó Exploring the implications of gender biases in the sustainability industry
	Beáta Farkas, Viktor Skyrman, Andrea Éltető, Judit Ricz Industrial policy options in the EU: lessons from the battery industry	Farouk Nouri Industrial Policy under Geoeconomic Fragmentation: A Four-Dimensional Framework and the Korea–Malaysia–Morocco Contrast	Emese Dobos Heritage of a socialist light industry: Environmental and health effects of deindustrialization in Hungary	Szemira Mohammad Beyond Credit: Assessing the Multidimensional Impact of Microfinance as a Financial Inclusion. Model on Poverty Alleviation and Development in Pakistan
	Tamás Csontos, Helena Drdlova, Dorottya Szabó Beyond Political Capture: State Capacity Constraints and the Evolution of State Aid Policy in Hungary	Erzsébet N. Rózsa, Tamás Szigetvári The Moroccan Atlantic Opening: Economic Potential, Industrial Transformation, and Strategic Perspectives	Túry Gábor, Andrea Éltető, Tamás Szigetvári Structural Transformation of Automotive Supply Chains in Central Europe in the Context of the Shift to Electric Vehicle Production	Melissa Gonzalez Crisis-Driven Geopolitical Concentration of Security Aid in Ecuador (2007–2024)
	Gergely Buda How smart semi-peripheral (industrial) policies gain shares in non-conventional markets: Lessons from the Baltic states' expansion in Africa	Juan Demian Inzulza Hugo Chávez's populism and national champions policies in Venezuela (1999-2013)	Khushi Jain Reading between the Green Lines: Untangling Big Tech's Role in Green GovTech Markets in Global South	Mirko Dukic Aid and Institutions in Sub-Saharan Africa in the Post-Cold War Period
16:15-16:30	Closing Remarks Magdolna Sass (Institute of World Economics CERS ELTE)
16:30-17:00	Farewell			